

Definition:

- Growth involves cell division, expansion, and the uptake of water, light, nutrients.

Explanation:

- Explain seed germination (seed absorbs water → radicle emerges → shoot grows up). Growth depends on light, water, soil nutrients, and temperature. Introduce basic idea of photosynthesis as the source of building material.

Activity:

- Germinate seeds in transparent cup so children can see root/shoot development and make daily observations.